

Pp Cheer

P is for pig, pickles, and pot

P is for pizza, gooey and hot

P is for pancakes, piled up high

P is for puppy, popcorn, and pie

Hooray for P, big and small—the peachiest, peppiest letter of all!

And they did!

The Pigs' Picnic

BY HELEN H. MOORE

ILLUSTRATED BY ELLEN JOY SASAKI

Penny, Polly, and Peter Pig were planning a picnic.
“What shall we pack in our picnic basket?”
asked Penny.

To the precious, petite princess, Rachel Collins.

Peter looked in the pantry.
“Let’s pack some peaches,” said Peter.
“A peachy idea!” said Polly.
“Are they ripe?” asked Penny.
“Perhaps we should taste them first,” said Polly.

B

“That’s peculiar!” said Peter.
“I guess we’ll have to put off our picnic,” said Polly.
“We could order pizza instead,” said Penny.

11

Before long, the pantry was empty.
But so was the picnic basket!
Penny, Polly, and Peter were puzzled.

10

And they did.
“Perfect!” said Penny.

3

“Perhaps we should pack some pasta salad,”
said Polly.
“And pears and plums,” said Penny.

8

And they did.
“MMMMMMM. Pickle-icious!” said Peter.

5

"Let's pack pickles," said Peter.
"Perhaps we should taste the pickles, too,"
said Polly.

4

C

"And pumpkin pie," said Peter.
Of course, Penny, Polly, and Peter tasted everything first.

9

Peter made some peanut butter and potato chip sandwiches.
"Would you like to taste them?"
Peter asked Penny and Polly.

6

D

"Yes, please!" said Penny and Polly.
And they did.
